Masked Men Destroy Three Hundred Sheep and Burn
Food Supply.

RAMIE, Wyo., April 26.—Cyrus Bursen, foreman on the Stevens Laramie, reported here this morning that fifteen masked men had raided a sheep camp on Weaver ranch, about two miles from the foreman's home. The men killed 300 of sheep from a bunch of 3000 and burned the food supply of the camp.

FEATS OF MEMORY.

Ordinary memories have attended the attention of men of all ages and in all times. It is considered to be more or less of a feat of memory to be able to recall a good instance of remarkable deeds of Greece and Rome. The-mises of a famous Greek General, is said to have been able to recall every citizen in Athens.
At Otho, the Roman Emperor, much of his success to a remarkable memory. He learned the name of every soldier and officer in the army.
Among other things, he remembered popular that he was at length Emperor.

Voltaire, the Roman orator, is said to have been able, after sitting a whole day in a public hall, to give an account of all things said, with names and names of the purchasers.
After a later time, the following affords an instance of wonderful memory. An Englishman Frederick sent to Voltaire, who was residing at the Prussian court.
King's request Voltaire read a manuscript of the poem of Frederick and was present and was in a position that he could hear the poem, though he was from Voltaire's notice. After reading of the poem Frederick observed that the author had not not been an original one, as was a foreign gentleman present and recited every word of it. Voltaire in amazement to the man who repeated, word for word, the poem, which he had just composed, and giving way to entirely outburst of passion, he manuscript in pieces. He was told that the Englishman had been acquainted with his poem and, being appeared, he was willing to recite the poem, and was penance by copying down the second repetition of the who was able to go through the poem in the sixteenth century.

lived in the sixteenth century, his memory to such a high degree that he could recite poems after once hearing them.

of the eighteenth century, used to put to a curious use. On one men who had given it to him. The amounted to $116 pints.

power of retaining events has his memory. He could recall with exactness the date of the event on any given day during those Getting Something for Nothing.

"It is my experience," said the clerk of a confectionery store in Fifth avenue, "that even women who have all the money they want to spend will walk two blocks out of their way to a store where they can get something for nothing. Sometimes it is only a sample package of chocolate that costs a rival in business less than half a cent a package. Sometimes it is liquorice pellets done up in little silk bags. Again it is a free glass of soda water with every pound of candy. In hot weather it is a fan. No matter what it is, the women will rush to that store." The triumph of getting something for nothing has an attractiveness for women that men cannot resist.
I wanted the boss to go in for something of the kind, but he gave me a look that nearly froze me stiff. He is willing to let the dollars drift by and maintain the dignity of the house."

GOV. WELLS STARTS FOR ST. LOUIS FAIR

Gov. Wells left last night for St.
Louis in order to be present at the formal opening of the Louisiana Purchase exposition by the 30th inst. It was expected that all of the members of the Utah fair commission would be in attendance at the opening, but now it looks like Commissioner Willis Johnson of Circleville would be the only other member present. Director General Whittaker of the Utah exhibition is now in St. Louis.

Prof. H. S. Cummings, director of the Utah educational exhibit, who, at the present time is in the World's Fair city, writes that the Utah exhibit with the exception of the educational display, are as far advanced for the opening as those from any other State.
All of the work, he says, has been delayed by the recent severe snowstorms.
The professor congratulates himself and this State upon his good fortune in being able to purchase twelve cabinets for the educational booth. Had Mr. Cummings not found the cabinets ready made it would have required about three months to have had them built under present conditions in the labor world at St. Louis.

Mr. Cummings has found in talking with people there that a great deal is expected from the school of Utah and he expresses the hope that the citizens of this State, and especially the teachers, will aid him in every way possible in fulfilling the high expectations that have been raised. The Utah educational booth is near completion.

and organs is second to none in Utah.
Our prices are right and terms easy.

nant and Chamberlain, 51 and 53 South

WILSON RELEASED ON HABEAS CORPUS

Judge Morse yesterday granted the petition of W. I. Wilson, the alleged Calientes train robber, for a writ of habeas corpus and ordered the petitioner discharged. This makes the second time during the past ten days that the prisoner has been liberated from the county jail on habeas corpus proceedings.

Wilson, who goes under the alias of C. H. Moore, was taken into custody at Milford soon after the robbery of the San Pedro train. He was wounded in several places and was brought to a hospital in this city, where one arm was afterward amputated. He is now carrying three bullets in one leg. Wilson was released from custody on a writ of habeas corpus about ten days ago, but was immediately after again arrested on the charge of being a fugitive from justice. It is understood that he is wanted in Nevada for forgery as well as for robbery.
Sheriff Johnson of Lincoln county, Nevada, arrived in the city last Saturday with requisition papers for the prisoner. In the meantime Attorney W. F. Wanless filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the prisoner's behalf, and notwithstanding that Gov.
Wells had honored the requisition papers Sheriff Emery could not turn the prisoner over to the Nevada authorities until the petition had been passed upon.
The writ was argued Monday and granted yesterday by Judge Morse. The requisition papers were held to be in-regular because the complaint against the defendant was not attached. It is believed that Wilson will make a "getaway" before proper requisition papers can be secured from Nevada.

Court Notes.

Suit to recover $2000 damages for alleged unlawful and malicious arrest was filed in the District Court yesterday by W. G. Ehler against J. B. Taylor. The complaint recites that on April 18, 1904, the above defendant swore to a complaint charging the plaintiff with stealing twelve planks valued at $10, and that the above plaintiff was arrested and imprisoned for two hours. On April 20th, it is alleged, the plaintiff was arraigned before City Judge Diehl and acquitted of the crime charged. By reason of the publication of the plaintiff's arrest he claims that his business, that of a building contractor, was damaged in the sum of $2000.

Anna C. Klein was granted a divorce from Lou W. Klein by Judge Hall yesterday, on the ground of non-support.
The couple were married September 6, 1897, at Omaha, Neb., and have one child. The plaintiff was granted the custody of the minor and ordered to her maiden name of Anna C. Juckness.
Charles M. Coddington, a miner of Bingham, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States court. He gives his liabilities at $1161.49 and his assets at $1301.95.

ECZEMA ON LITTLE GIRL

Sleepless Nights for Mother and Awful Suffering of CHILD.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Had Given up All Hopes of Ever Making Any Cure.

"My little girl has been suffering for two years or more from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her skin was very severe."
"I had tried so many remedies and spent much money, deriving no benefit, I had absolutely given up all hope of making any cure. But as a last resort I was persuaded to try a box of Cuticura ointment, and to my great delight a marked change was manifested from the first application. I gave the child a bath with Cuticura Soap, using a soft piece of muslin cloth.
This I did twice a day, each time following with the Cuticura Ointment, and at the same time gave the Resolvent, according to directions. One box of the Ointment and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. I submit this for publication if you desire, hoping it will add to your success and answer so many thousands of sufferers in suffering themselves." Mrs. J. B. JONES, ADDINGTON, IND. T.

The first step in the treatment of the chronic forms is to remove the scales and crusts and soften the skin, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap. The scalp, ears, elbows, hands, ankles and feet will require frequently a thorough soaking in order to penetrate the thickened skin and crusts with which these parts are often covered. Dry carefully, and apply Cuticura Ointment, lightly at first, and where advisable spread it on pieces of soft cloth and bind in place. Take the Resolvent, pills, or liquid, in medium doses. Do not use cold water in bathing, and avoid cold, raw winds.
